Economics
Learning goals and objectives

Upon completion of a BA degree in Economics, graduates will be able to:

EG1. Demonstrate competency in written and oral communications.

EG2. Demonstrate proficiency in current software and technology used in Economics.

EG3. Demonstrate critical thinking and quantitative and analytical skills.

EG4. Demonstrate knowledge of economic and social responsibilities.

EG5. Demonstrate understanding of economic concepts and principles of macro and micro economics.

EG6. Demonstrate understanding of national and international economic issues and linkages.