"Take me down to the paradise city where the grass is green ..."

Reykjavik

Size of Icelandic municipalities distorted by population

On the 1st of January 2014 about 70% of the Icelandic population lived in the capital of Reykjavik or its neighboring municipalities. Below is an undistorted map of Icelandic municipalities and a bar graph showing population.