Under the U.S. federal law (Section 438 of Public Law 90-247, as amended), students are permitted access to certain education records. Section 438(a)(2)(B) provides that a student may waive the right to inspect confidential letters of recommendation. Many applicants have found that a recommendation letter written in confidence has a greater impact than one to which the applicant also has access. If you waive your right to inspect the information requested by this form, please sign below:

Complete this form prior to having a doctor complete the Physician’s Medical Report Form.

TO THE STUDENT:

The purpose of this form is to help the program to be of maximum assistance should the need arise during your study abroad experience. Mild physical or psychological disorders can become serious under the stresses of life while studying abroad. It is important that the program be made aware of any medical or emotional problems, past or current, which might affect you while you are overseas. The information provided will remain confidential. Any disclosure of such information will be made only to the most appropriate individuals and with the highest level of discretion in order to protect student privacy. Relevant information will be shared with program staff, faculty, or appropriate professionals as it relates to your health and safety. The program may not be able to accommodate all individual needs or circumstances. Please note: the nondisclosure of a physical or medical condition may affect our ability to provide information relevant to your specific needs abroad.

TALK WITH YOUR DOCTOR

While studying abroad, you may experience stressful situations that are NOT limited to: not having regularly scheduled meals or not having access to water for taking medications; feeling the emotional stress of culture shock; and feeling physical and emotional fatigue due to traveling and taking classes abroad. Mild physical or psychological disorders can become serious under the stress of life while studying abroad. The Office for Study Abroad strongly recommends you discuss your plans with your physician(s).

Living and studying in a foreign environment frequently creates unexpected physical and emotional stress, which can exacerbate otherwise mild disorders. It is important that you are able to adjust to potentially dramatic changes in climate, diet, living conditions, and studying conditions that may seriously disrupt accustomed patterns of behavior.

Discuss your health history thoroughly with your doctor, paying particular attention to immunizations that may be needed, any allergies you may have, and all currently active health problems. Pay special attention to any emotional or psychological concerns, and any medications you are taking.

You will need to ascertain the availability of medications in the country to which you are going and/or assure that you have an adequate supply of any medication needed to last for the entire period you will be abroad. Any medical condition you have must be under control and you need to be stabilized on your medication for a reasonable period before studying abroad.

I certify that all responses made on this Health Questionnaire are true and accurate, and I will notify the Lehman College thereafter of any relevant changes in my health that may occur prior to the start of the program.

WAIVER AND RELEASE AGREEMENT

I, _______________________________ ("Applicant"), am a student at ____________________ College ("College") of The City University of New York ("University") and have agreed to participate in the College's international studies program ("Program") in ____________________________________________________________________________________________ from ______________, 20___ until ______________, 20___. In consideration for being permitted to participate in the Program, I hereby agree and represent that:

1. Risks of Study Abroad

A. I understand that participation in the Program involves risks not found in study at the College. These include risks involved in traveling to and within, and returning from, one or more foreign countries; foreign political, legal, social and economic conditions; different standards of design, safety and maintenance of buildings, public places and conveyances; local medical and weather conditions; and other matters described in the attached U.S. Department of State Consular Information Sheet (and Travel Warning, if any) that I have received, reviewed, and initialed, and which are incorporated by reference in this Waiver and Release Agreement ("Release").

B. I also understand that local transportation within Crete will be provided by the professors leading the program who will be driving the vehicles.

C. Knowing these risks, and in consideration of being permitted to participate in the Program, I agree, on behalf of my family, heirs and personal representative(s), to assume all the risks and responsibilities surrounding my participation in the Program. I understand that, although the University has made every reasonable effort to assure my safety while participating in the Program, there are unavoidable risks in travel overseas, and I hereby release and promise not to sue the City of New York, the State of New York, the College, the University, and the officers, employees or agents of any and all of them, for any damages or injury (including death) caused by, deriving from, or associated with my participation in the Program, except for such damages or injury as may be caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the officers, employees or agents of any of them.

2. Institutional Arrangements

A. I understand that the University does not represent or act as an agent for, and cannot control the acts or omissions of, any host institution, host family, transportation carrier, hotel, tour organizer or other provider of goods or services involved in the Program. I understand that the University is not responsible for matters that are beyond its control. I hereby release the University from any injury, loss, damage, accident, delay or expense arising out of such matters.

B. I understand that, although the University will attempt to maintain the Program as described in its publications and brochures, it reserves the right to change the Program, including the itinerary, travel arrangements and accommodations, at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and that neither the College, the University, the State of New York, or the City of New York nor the officers, employees or agents of any or all of them, shall be responsible or liable for any expenses or losses that I may sustain because of these changes.
C. I understand that the University is not in any way responsible for my well being with respect to any travel to destinations beyond those specifically required under the Program that I may choose to undertake before, during, or after the Program.

3. Health and Safety

A. I have consulted with a medical doctor with regard to my personal medical needs. There are no health-related reasons or problems, which preclude or restrict my participation in the Program.

B. I have or will secure health insurance to provide adequate coverage for any injuries or illnesses that I may sustain or experience while participating in the Program. By my signature below I certify that I have confirmed that my health care coverage will adequately cover me while outside the United States, and hereby release the City of New York, the State of New York, the College, the University, and the officers, employees or agents of any and all of them, from any responsibility or liability for expenses incurred by me for injuries or illnesses (including death) occurring during and/or arising from the Program, that I may incur because of those injuries or illnesses.

C. The University may, but is not obligated to, take any actions regarding my health and safety that it considers to be warranted under the circumstances. I agree to pay all expenses relating thereto and release the University from any liability for any such actions.

4. Standards of Conduct

A. I understand that each foreign country has its own laws and standards of acceptable conduct, including dress, manners, morals, politics, drug use and behavior. I recognize that behavior that violates those laws or standards could harm the University's relations with those countries and the institutions therein, as well as my own health and safety. I will become informed of, and will abide by, all such laws and standards for each country to or through which I will travel during the Program.

B. I also will comply with the University's rules, standards and instructions for student behavior. I waive and release all claims against the University that arise at a time when I am not under the direct supervision of the University or that are caused by my failure to remain under such supervision or to comply with such rules, standards and instructions.

C. I agree that the University has the right to enforce the standards and conduct described herein, in its sole judgment, and that it may impose restrictions, up to and including removal and termination from the Program, for violating these standards or for any behavior detrimental to or incompatible with the interest, harmony and welfare of the College, the University, the Program or other participants. I agree that, due to the circumstances of foreign study programs, procedures for notice, hearing and appeal applicable to student disciplinary proceedings at the University do not apply. If I am terminated from the Program, I consent to going home at my own expense with no refund of fees.
D. I will attend to any legal problems I encounter with any foreign nationals or government of the host country. The University is not responsible for providing any assistance under such circumstances.

5. Miscellaneous Legal Provisions

A. I agree that, should any provision or aspect of this Release be found to be unenforceable, that all remaining provisions of the Release will remain in full force and effect.

B. I represent that my agreement to the provisions herein is wholly voluntary, and further understand that, prior to signing this Release, I have the right to consult with the adviser, counselor, or attorney of my choice.

C. This Release represents my complete understanding with the College and the University concerning their responsibility and liability for my participation in the Program. It supersedes any previous or contemporaneous understandings I may have had with the College or the University on this subject, whether written or oral, and cannot be changed or amended in any way without my written concurrence.

D. I represent that I am at least eighteen years of age or, if not, that I have secured on the following page, the signature of my parent or guardian as well as my own.

I HAVE READ THIS RELEASE FORM CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING IT.
