GLOBAL RESEARCH IN SINGAPORE

UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH OPPORTUNITY

COMING IN JANUARY 2015!
Deadline to apply: October 17, 2014

We are happy to announce that Lehman College once again will offer this exciting research opportunity to its undergraduate students. Through this Global Research initiative, students will spend 10 days (January 4-14) studying at Nanyang Polytechnic, Lehman’s partner institution in Singapore.

This short-term project will be integrated with an independent study course approved by a faculty advisor. Students’ proposals must reflect original thinking on global themes that are relevant to the following disciplines:

- Business and economics
- Health sciences
- Information technology
- Design and media
- Chemical and life sciences

Students selected for this opportunity will receive round-trip airfare and a $400 stipend to cover personal expenses. Housing will be provided free of charge by Nanyang Polytechnic.

Selection criteria:

- Proposal for independent study reflecting originality and global approach to present-day issues in the above-mentioned areas (proposal must be approved by the faculty advisor)
- GPA 2.8 or higher
- Interest in foreign cultures and cross-cultural communication
- Willingness to prepare a written report on the project for external publication and for presentation at Lehman’s Undergraduate Research and Creativity Day
- US citizenship (for travel purposes)

The application process includes:

1. Proposal for an independent study course to be taken in Winter or Spring 2015 demonstrating how the trip to Singapore will help the research
2. Approval from a faculty advisor
3. Review and approval of the proposal by the Undergraduate Research Advisory Board
4. Personal interview

The research proposal should be a 1-page paper addressing the following points:

1. Global theme of research
2. Research question(s)
3. Personal experiences and strengths that will ensure the success of the research project
4. Expected outcomes and gains as a result of the research experience

The application can be downloaded from the Study Abroad web site or requested from Dr. Mila Ellis at 718-960-8924 or ludmila.ellis@lehman.cuny.edu. Applications must be submitted by the deadline to the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs in Shuster Hall 303 or via email to orsp.lehman@lehman.cuny.edu.
