INTRODUCTION

The most meaningful and rewarding advantage of belonging to a campus organization is the opportunity it provides to become more involved in campus life. Through membership in a campus group, an individual has the opportunity to meet others and participate in co-curricular activities, which complement the intellectual challenges of college life. This guidebook is designed to outline important information concerning club procedures and policies.

Club and Organization Registration

At the beginning of each semester, all clubs and organizations must meet the requirements of the Office of Campus Life by filing the following forms:

1. Online Club Registration
2. Submitting a Club Constitution: Constitution for new club or updated constitution if amendments have been made.

New Campus Club/Organizations: Students who are interested in organizing a new campus group must submit a valid and acceptable club constitution, a list of the names of at least ten enrolled Lehman students who will be members of the club to the Office of Campus Life using the online organization registration campaign at LEHMAN.COLLEGIATELINK.NET.

The filing deadline for club registration is approximately 2 to 3 weeks after the first day of classes. Specific dates will be posted by the Office of Campus Life.

Good Standing

Clubs that comply with regulations, maintain accurate records, and exhibit appropriate group conduct are considered to be in good standing. Noncompliance will place the standing of the club/organization in jeopardy and privileges may be restricted or revoked.

Office of Campus Life

The Office of Campus Life directs, coordinates and facilitates the activities of all student organizations. In conjunction with the Student Government Association, it provides the college community with social, cultural, educational and recreational programs. Students are encouraged to inform the office of their ideas, interests and concerns. The office is located in the Student Life Building, room 222. The telephone number to the office is (718) 960-8535, Fax (718) 960-7848. The email address is CAMPUS.LIFE@LEHMAN.CUNY.EDU.

Faculty Advisors

All clubs are required to have a faculty advisor. Clubs must consult with their advisor regarding their plans for activities and programs. A faculty advisor may work with no more than two clubs. Faculty advisors must be present for weekend and off campus events sponsored by clubs. Faculty advisors must confirm their status with the club every semester using the online confirmation form. All Student Event forms must be signed by the faculty advisor of the club requesting to hold the event.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association is the elected student body which represents the needs and interests of the Lehman student community. A copy of the SGA constitution is available online, as well as in rooms 222 and 202 of the Student Life Building. The following are elected annually by the students: - President - Executive Vice President – Vice President for Academic Affairs- CCD Vice President -Community Affairs Programmer - Campus Facilities Officer - Mass Communication Officer. - Entertainment Programmer - Financial Planner - Research Planner - SGS Coordinator (Evening Students) - Student Services Programmer - Senators

The SGA Offices are located in the Student Life Building, suite 201.

Student Life Building

The Student Life Building, built in 1980 and renovated in 2012, is located at the south end of the campus, facing the athletic field. It is a two story complex consisting of offices, lounges and conference rooms. This building houses many of the college clubs and organizations. During the academic semesters the building is open Monday to Thursday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., while classes are in session and Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. A valid Lehman I.D. is required to use the facilities.

Privileges of Campus Clubs

I. Facilities

Registered campus groups may apply for the use of a variety of campus facilities including bulletin boards, meeting rooms, lecture halls, campus lounges, common area booths and tables, club offices and audiovisual equipment. Most clubs schedule the use of a campus classroom during the free hours (Mondays 3:30 to 5:00 p.m., Wednesdays 3:30 to 5:00 p.m.) for regular club meetings. To do this, the organization files a Student Event Form with the Office of Campus Life. Each organization must submit to the Office of Campus Life a schedule of meeting times and location, which will be provided to students interested in joining clubs. Clubs may sometimes wish to hold an activity on campus during the evening or on the weekend. These special events require specific and detailed arrangements found under the Special Events section of this document.

II. Audiovisual Center

Registered organizations may apply to use a booth or set up a table on campus for publicity, to provide information, to sell tickets to a club event, or to hold a fundraising activity. Students must file a Student Event / Space reservation form in the Office of Campus Life.
III. Common Areas, Booths and Tables

Registered organizations may apply to use a booth or set up a table on campus for publicity, to provide information, to sell tickets to a club event, or to hold a fundraising activity. Students must file a Student Event / Space reservation form in the Office of Campus Life.

IV. Club Offices

Offices are assigned to campus groups on a space availability basis. Clubs file an Application for Office Space with the Committee of Co-Curricular Development. The committee reviews office assignments each semester and recommends space allocations to the Director of Campus Life. Organizations that have received office space in the Student Life Building are directly responsible for the upkeep of the space they occupy. Damage to the structure and to lights, light fixtures, floors, ceilings, doors, etc., will result in the loss of the space occupied. Nailing on walls or other structures is also prohibited. Bulletin boards are provided throughout the building for authorized posting. Students are reminded to keep the building clean and to respect the privacy of others during daily operations of the building. Clubs are responsible for the behavior of their members and visitors as well. Students are also reminded of the College no alcoholic beverage policy, as well as the no smoking policy. Clubs must keep noise levels to an appropriate degree. Clubs may not interfere with the activities of other clubs, other events, or the operations of the Office of Campus Life. Radios or other amplifiers will be allowed in the club offices if they do not interfere with normal operations of another club or event. Club officers are responsible for the behavior of clubs.

V. Mail

All club and organizations that have received mail will be notified via email and/or Campus Link. Clubs are also responsible for checking with the Office of Campus Life for any undelivered mail.

VI. Members / Keys

For gaining entry to club offices, club members must sign in at the front desk of the Office of Campus Life. Only club members whose names are on the club roster will be allowed entry. Club rosters may be updated using the Lehman CampusLink online social network. Please refer to the SA LINK handbook for instructions on how to update your roster.

VII. Public Address System / Bull Horn

Organizations needing the public address system for an event are to request the system in advance from the Office of Campus Life. Amplified sound may not be used in open areas when classes are in session. Bull horns are not allowed on campus.
VIII. Meetings

All clubs are required to hold a minimum of one (1) meeting a month. All meetings must be scheduled and locations reserved with the Office of Campus Life by using a Student Event Form. The agenda of all scheduled meetings must be submitted to the Office of Campus life no later than 2 days prior to the date of the meeting. Minutes of scheduled meetings must be submitted via Lehman CampusLink to the Office of Campus life no later than 1 week following the meeting date, as well as before the next scheduled Committee of Co-Curricular Development meeting to ensure that all proposals have been discussed among the majority of your club members before being brought to club board. Minutes from club meetings will be used to verify that a proposed event has been discussed and approved by a majority of the organization members. Event paperwork for an event that has not been discussed, approved and added to the minutes will not be processed by the Office of Campus Life and Committee of Co-Curricular Development. Refer to the sample minutes and agenda included in the club guide for assistance in writing minutes and agenda. Refer to the Lehman CampusLink training material for instructions on uploading meeting minutes and agendas.

IX. Speakers

Lehman College grants student groups the right to invite speakers of their choice under rules established by the college; such speakers do not represent views of Lehman College or its faculty. The concepts of freedom of speech and open dialogue are an integral part of the college community and are to be respected. A Special Event Form must be filed with the Office of Campus Life two weeks before the speaker is scheduled to appear. If an organization wishes to invite a speaker or performer from outside the college, a request must be submitted to the Director of Campus Life, at least two weeks in advance of the date of the event. The speaker request requires the following information: name of speaker, affiliation of speaker, topic of address, date and place of meeting, and the signature of the faculty advisor. When extending an invitation to a speaker, the student group should keep in mind the following general principles: the University’s commitment to the independent search for truth; the preservation of an atmosphere of free inquiry; the preservation of the University’s intellectual integrity; and the necessity of all members of the University to obey the laws of the state and nation. The entire program of each meeting must fall within the scope and purposes stated in the organizations constitution.

X. Publicity

Clubs may receive assistance with publicity from the SGA Mass Communications Officer. Publicity, such as flyers, posters and newsletters, can be arranged through the Mass Communications Officer. Clubs will be charged for duplicating services. Clubs wishing to place an ad in the Meridian should submit their request to the publication. WHLC will provide public service announcements for clubs. Clubs can also publicize their events on TargetVision by contacting the TargetVision coordinator and on CampusLink. The following procedures apply when a club is planning an event and wants to publicize it through posters and flyers, Target Vision (television), WHLC, Campus-Link and other Social Networks:

1. All publicity must include the name of the sponsoring campus groups.
2. All publicity must include the admission policy for the event and the admission price which must be confirmed with the Office of Campus Life.
3. All publicity must include the time and location of the event.
4. Before events are publicized, approval of the event must be secured from the Office of Campus Life and the location or facility requested must be confirmed as well as funds from CCD board, if necessary.
5. The Director of Campus Life must approve all publicity before it can be posted and published. Original copies of flyers, power point presentations, social network content, must be brought to the Campus Life Office for an approval stamp and signature before duplication and before content is published. Flyers and posters may not be placed on glass doors and windows, walls, light poles or trees. Flyers on places other than bulletin boards will be removed. Please refer to the list of Approved Posting Locations included in the club guide. Allow twenty four (24) hours for all event flyers and publicity to be reviewed and approved.
6. To post notices on departmental bulletin boards permission must be requested from the department.
7. Flyers and posters and all publicity not authorized by the Office of Campus Life will be removed.
8. Clubs are responsible for the removal of all publicity within 24 hours after the event.
9. Pending their availability, clubs will be allowed to use an A-Frame to promote their event on campus.
10. Clubs may not promote their planned events using social networking websites prior to all paperwork and details regarding the event being approved by the Office of Campus Life to ensure that all promotion is accurate and consistent.

XI. Funding

The Lehman College Association for Campus Activities determines the annual budget for the SGA, which includes funds for clubs. The Committee of Co-Curricular Development establishes guidelines each semester for funding activities. The committee includes five representatives from the Student Government Association and is advised by the Director of Campus Life. Generally, the committee funds activities, which clubs sponsor on campus for the entire college community. The Committee of Co-Curricular Development notifies clubs about the guidelines and gives deadline dates for submitting detailed budget requests at the beginning of each semester. Clubs have an opportunity to discuss their requests with the Club Board and are notified at the scheduled club board meeting of their specific allocation. Clubs that have submitted a proposal to Committee of Co-Curricular Development must send a representative to the meeting. Failure to do so will result in the tabling of the club’s proposal. All Club Board proposals are to be submitted no later than the deadline set by the Committee of Co-Curricular Development. Proposals will be date and time stamped as they are received by the Office of Campus Life. All proposal forms are to be submitted solely to the Office of Campus Life along with a draft of all publicity (PowerPoint, flyer, TargetVision, etc) for the proposed event. The following section of this handbook outlines procedures concerning the use of funds. Monies collected at events funded by the Committee of Co-Curricular Development must be deposited back into the committee account. Any profits will be deposited into the club account in the Campus Activities office in Shuster Hall room 080.

XII. Money

During the year, clubs may become involved with the handling of funds. In this case, certain procedures must be followed. All registered clubs have an account with the Office of Campus Life and the College Business Office, Shuster Hall, room 080. Clubs may deposit and withdraw funds to meet expenses. All club dues, monies raised at a fundraising event (food sale, cake sale, etc.) and money collected as an admission price or a donation must be deposited in this account. All monies raised must be turned over to a representative of the Office of Campus Life immediately after the event has ended. The organization will be given a deposit receipt and the funds will be credited to your account. All funds in club accounts that are left unspent will be returned to the Lehman College Association for Campus Activities account at the conclusion of the fiscal year. Clubs have until the last day of the semester to file paperwork with the Office of Campus Life to withdraw and utilize their remaining funds. Clubs and Organizations may not open or maintain funds in any off-campus bank, credit union, or savings association.

Clubs that receive allocations of funds from the Committee of Co-Curricular Development / SGA have to obtain from the Office of Campus Life the appropriate Advance or Withdrawal Forms. The designated SGA Officers and the Director of Campus Life or Designee must sign these forms before the Office of Campus Life can submit them to the Business Office.

1. Advance Forms

All requests for funds prior to an event should be made only when absolutely necessary. The advance request form includes a detailed budget and a signed affidavit stating that the individual will submit receipts for the money advanced, or return the money within 7 days after the event. Use of the Advance Form is left to the discretion of the Director of Campus Life. Advance forms will not be used for the withdrawal of funds exceeding Fifty (50) dollars.

2. Withdrawal Form:

Requests for payment, which are accompanied by a bill, receipt, or a signed contract showing proof of expenses, must be submitted to the Office of Campus Life. Performance Contract forms are available at the Office of Campus Life.

XIII. Purchase Requisitions:

All financial transactions by clubs are governed by the Fiscal Handbook for the Control and Accountability of Student Activities Fees as adopted by the CUNY University Board of Trustees in 1992 and updated on a continuing basis. A copy of the Handbook is available in the Office of Campus Life as well as on the CUNY Board of Trustees website.

Items such as office supplies need to be obtained through a purchase requisition. Purchases over $500 must be on a purchase requisition and require three written bids. Payment will be made when the club follows the procedures and obtains the proper forms and signatures. All disbursements will be made by check, generally made out in the name of the company from which the purchase is to be made. For any event for which a DJ, band, or speaker is to be paid, the check will be issued to the person(s) at the event by a representative from the Office of Campus Life. Checks will be made out only to the performer(s) or speaker(s). There is absolutely no paying in cash from proceeds of the event or any other source. Assistance with financial matters is available from SGA Financial Planner and the Campus Life staff.

To avoid delays and problems when arranging for the payment of bills, the following procedures should be followed:

1. Requests for payment must be typed or printed clearly and completely, giving specific information concerning the expenses such as date and nature of the event, number of items purchased, etc.
2. Receipts for expenses must always be provided. Receipts must be presented to the Business Office as soon as possible, but no later than seven days after the event has taken place. Failure to comply could result in actions by the college routinely taken against delinquent students.
3. Money requested for a specific purpose may be used only for that purpose.
4. All monies must be deposited in the Business Office. For events held during non-business hours (i.e. weekend, evening), money is deposited with Public Safety. The club receives receipt and the money is deposited to the club account with in three (3) business days. Clubs can withdraw money with Advance Request Forms or Withdrawal Forms as they would with money allocated to them by SGA.
5. All Withdrawal and Advance Request Forms must be submitted three weeks prior to the date when funds are needed. All club funds must be used by the last day of class for the spring semester.

XIV. Tickets

When there is an admission charge or tickets are utilized for on campus events, the following controls shall be instituted: (CUNY Fiscal Handbook for the Control and Accountability of Student Activity Fee, page 23 A-E)

1. The college should control and issue all tickets requested by a sponsoring organization or outside organization. The college should record the beginning and ending numbers in a ticket log for all tickets issued. The number of tickets must not exceed the college’s maximum legal capacity for the facilities being utilized.
2. The tickets should be ordered by the college and the cost of printing charged to the sponsoring organization.
3. The sponsoring organization should request the tickets from the college well in advance of the event. This period of time should be established by the college in order to allow for the printing of tickets and the appropriate notification of various college offices (i.e. Security, Building and Grounds, etc.) In addition, this will provide sufficient time to sell, in advance, as many tickets as possible.
4. Pre-numbered printed tickets must be used for each event.
5. Only a person/unit authorized by both the organization and the college should sell or distribute tickets.

All tickets are due with funds or unsold tickets, two days prior to the event. Students may receive up to ten tickets for advance sales. The Office of Campus Life shall maintain a Master Ticket Log.

XV. Kitchen

Procedures Governing Use of the Student Life Building Kitchen:

1. All organizations must fill out a Student Event Form and indicate that they would like to reserve the Student Life Building kitchen and submit the form two weeks prior to the day of the event.
2. One member of the organization must be designated to supervise the kitchen, and will be required to leave his/her ID in the Office of Campus Life.
3. The removal of all food and the cleaning of the kitchen are solely the responsibility of the organization.
4. The kitchen will be inspected at the end of the event to confirm that it was left in a satisfactory condition. If it is found that the kitchen was left dirty, the organization responsible may lose access to the kitchen for the remainder of the academic year.
5. It is expected that the stove, the refrigerator, the cabinets and countertops as well as the sink will be left clean. The oven and lights must be turned off and the door and sliding gate locked at the end of all events. No food should be left in the kitchen after any event.

XVI. Selling On Campus

An organization may not sell anything on campus, which provides profit to an individual or outside organization. An organization wishing to sell something (food, arts and crafts, etc.) must consult with the Office of Campus Life regarding the arrangements. All monies collected must be deposited according to procedures and may then be used by the club for its activities or charitable donations. All monies are to be submitted to the Office of Campus Life at the conclusion of the event. An Event Form must be submitted by all organizations requesting to conduct a bake sale or food sale no later than 2 weeks prior to the requested date.

A. Bake Sales / Food Sales

No more than two bake sales will be scheduled for a single day to avoid competition and to make sure that your fund-raiser is successful. All requests will be accepted on a first come, first serve basis. A STUDENT ORGANIZATION EVENT / ROOM RESERVATION FORM must be submitted by all organizations requesting a bake sale or food sale no later than 2 weeks prior to the requested date. All items sold at bake sales and food sales must be prepared by a licensed vendors. The sale of home cooked items is prohibited.
B. Copyrights and Your Rights (Movie Screenings)

“PUBLIC PERFORMANCE” (from www.mpaa.org)

Unauthorized public performances refer to situations where an institution or commercial establishment shows a tape or film to its members or customers without receiving permission from the copyright owner. This includes “public performances” where an admission is charged as well as those that are simply offered as an additional service of the establishment. “The Congress shall have power… To promote the progress of science and useful arts, by securing for limited times to authors and inventors the exclusive right to their respective writings or discoveries...” Article I, Section 8, The United States Constitution

“FAIR USE”

In some instances, it is not required to obtain a Movie Copyright Compliance Site License when exhibiting copyrighted materials such as videocassettes or DVDs.

This “face-to-face teaching exemption” applies only IF: A teacher is in attendance, the attendance is limited to students enrolled in the class, the showing takes place in the classroom setting and the movie is used as an essential part of the current curriculum being taught.

Examples of situations where a Movie Copyright Compliance Site License must be obtained are: public libraries, day-care facilities, and non-classroom entertainment movies being used at school for after school activities.

This legal requirement applies: Regardless of whether an admission fee is charged; whether the institution or organization is commercial or non-profit; whether a federal or state agency is involved.

WHAT THE LAW SAYS (from www.copyright.org)

The Federal Copyright Act (Title 17 of the United States Code) governs how copyrighted materials, such as movies, may be used. Neither the rental nor the purchase of a videocassette carries with it the right to show the tape outside the home.

In some instances no license is required to view a videotape, such as inside the home by family or social acquaintance and in certain narrowly defined face-to-face teaching activities. Taverns, restaurants, private clubs, prisons, lodges, factories, summer camps, public libraries, day-care facilities, parks and recreation departments, churches and non-classroom use at schools and universities are all examples of situations where a public performance license must be obtained. This legal requirement applies regardless of whether an admission fee is charged, whether the institution or organization is commercial or non-profit, or whether a federal or state agency is involved.
“What Are “Public Performances?”

Suppose you invite a few personal friends over for dinner and a movie. You purchase or rent a copy of a movie from a local video store and view the film in your home that night. Have you violated the copyright law by illegally “publicly performing” the movie? Probably not.

But suppose you took the same videocassette and showed it at a club or bar that you happen to manage. In this case you have infringed the copyright of the movie. Simply put, videocassettes obtained through a video store are not licensed for exhibition. Home video means just that: viewing of a movie at home by family or a close circle of friends.

Penalties for Copyright Infringement

“Willful” infringement for commercial or financial gain is a federal crime punishable as a misdemeanor, carrying a maximum sentence of up to one year in jail and/or a $100,000 fine. Even inadvertent infringers are subject to substantial civil damages, ranging from $500 to $20,000 for each illegal showing.

How to Obtain a Public Performance License

Obtaining a public performance license is relatively easy and usually requires no more than a phone call. Fees are determined by such factors as the number of times a particular movie is going to be shown, how large the audience will be and so forth. While fees vary, they are generally inexpensive for smaller performances. Most licensing fees are based on a particular performance or set of performances for specified films. By law, as well as by intent, the pre-recorded videocassettes and DVDs (“Videos”) which are available in stores throughout the United States are for home use only – unless you have a license to show them elsewhere. Rentals or purchase of Videos do not carry with them licenses for non-home showings. Before you can legally engage in non-home showings, you must have a separate license which specifically authorizes such use. These simple, straightforward rules are embodied in the federal Copyright Act, as amended, Title 17 of the United States Code. Any institution, organization, company or individual wishing to engage in non-home showings of Videos should be aware of the Copyright Act’s provisions governing the showing of Videos, which are highlighted below.

The Copyright Act grants to the copyright owner the exclusive right, among others, “to perform the copyrighted work publicly.” (Section 106)

The rental or purchase of a Video does not carry with it the right “to perform the copyrighted work publicly.”(Section 202)

Videos may be shown without a license in the home to “a normal circle of family and it’s social acquaintances”(section 101) because such showings are not “public.”

Videos may also be shown without a license for non-profit educational purposes and in certain narrowly defined “face-to-face teaching activities” (Section 101.1) because the law makes a specific, limited exception for such showings. (Sections 106 and 110(1))
Other showings of Videos are illegal unless they have been authorized by license. Even “performances in “semipublic” places such as clubs, lodges, factories, summer camps and schools are „public performances” subject to copyright control.” (Senate Report No. 94-473, page 60; House Report No. 94-1476, page 64)

Institutions, organizations, companies or individuals wishing to engage in non-home showings of Videos must secure licenses to do so – regardless of whether an admission or other fee is charged. This legal requirement applies equally to profit-making organizations and non-profit institutions (Senate Report No. 94-473, page 59; House Report No. 94-1476, page 62)

Showings of Videos without a license, when one is required, are infringements of copyright. If done “willfully and for purposes of commercial advantage or private financial gain,” they are a federal crime and subject to a $150,000 penalty per exhibition (Section 506)

XVII. EMAIL CONTACT

All club presidents and vice presidents are required to submit an email address to the Office of Campus Life that will be added to an email listserv. The listserv will be used by the Office of Campus Life to notify the club presidents and vice presidents of all important information that pertain to the clubs. Club presidents and vice presidents are expected to relay all information discussed on the listserv to their clubs. Clubs are encouraged to use the listserv to converse with each other and share ideas. Clubs and organizations will also be contacted via the Lehman CampusLink online social network. Specific instructions on how to join the listserv and how to utilize CAMPUS-LINK will be supplied at the beginning of every semester by the Office of Campus Life.

Special Events

I. Weekends & Evenings

When an organization plans to sponsor an event other than during free hours (e.g. evening, weekend), the organization must submit a Special Event Reservation Request Form to the Office of Campus Life. Events open to the Lehman Community only can be held Monday through Thursday until 8:45 PM. All other club sponsored events occurring on Thursday evenings after 9:00 PM as well as weekend events, Friday through Saturday, will be approved on a case by case basis by the Director of Campus Life. Events held on Thursday may go to 1:00 am the following morning based on the availability of the Office of Campus Life and Public Safety. The approval of the Director of Campus Life is needed on the form before reservations for facilities can be confirmed. Approval of parties is subject to the availability of Campus Life staff to cover the event. Clubs should allow a minimum of three weeks to make these arrangements. Clubs are urged to co – sponsor activities with organizations of similar purpose so that the strain on facilities may be alleviated. Admission to all Lehman College student organization sponsored events is reserved for Lehman College students only. Guidelines Governing Special Events are found in section 111 of this document. A special guest policy may be considered by the Director of Campus Life for Special Events beginning after 9:00 pm. Regular events held in the Student Life building must end at 8:30 pm.

Upon admission to a special event, students and guests may not leave and re-enter the event except for rest room use. Public Safety will designate rest rooms for use by students and guests attending the event. Admission to Special Events will close no later than 11:30 PM.

II. Planning An Event

Any and all room reservations requests must be submitted to the Office of Campus Life. Planning an event includes the following steps:

Funds deposited at the Office of Public Safety will be retrieved by the Office of Campus Life within three (3) business days and will be re-deposited in the organization’s account in the Business Office. When an event is held on weekends or in the evening, all funds collected are counted by the representatives from the sponsoring club or organization, the Office of Campus Life, and the Office of Public Safety. The procedures for making deposits cited above will be followed. Tickets collected at the gate must also be deposited with funds collected.

2. An officer of the club or student organization holding an event is required to be at the entrance gate to help screen visitors attending the events.
3. It is prohibited to bring alcoholic beverages of any sort onto the campus. People found on the premises with alcoholic beverages will be charged as being in violation of Campus Policies.
4. All bags and packages must be checked by the Office of Public Safety before admission to the event area. The use of metal detectors, hand scanners, etc. is solely up to the discretion of the Office of Public Safety. The Office of Campus Life will assist groups in securing these arrangements and completing the necessary forms.
