Introduction

The Lehman College Now Summer Multimedia Arts Academy will provide high school students with a unique opportunity to experience college-level studies in the multimedia arts and communication. Students will take college-credit courses in digital arts, journalism, dance, theatre or digital storytelling. The courses will provide an interactive hands-on learning experience as well as an exposure to the arts and humanities. Students will receive 4 college credits for successful completion of their academic work and will be involved in a multimedia production as part of the Summer Multimedia Arts Festival on August 8 and August 9. The cost of the program is FREE for the student. College Now covers the costs of tuition, books, lunch and transportation (metro cards).

Program Schedule

The College Now Summer Multimedia Arts Academy will meet on the Lehman College campus from Monday July 9 through Thursday August 9. The classes will meet Monday – Thursday from 9:30 am – 4:00 pm (with a 45 minute break for lunch). Students will be expected to complete the full five-week program. Students choose from one of the following fields of study: (1) ART 112: Digital Imaging (2) DNC 235: Dance Perspectives (3) JRN 221: Reporting I (4) THE 225: Digital Storytelling or (5) THE 241: The Art of Theatre. The program culminates with the presentation of students' work at the Summer Multimedia Arts Festival on Wednesday August 8 and Thursday August 9 at the Lovinger Theatre on the Lehman College campus.

Eligibility:

1. You must be a NYC Public High School student.
2. You must have received a 75+ on the English Language Arts (ELA) Regents Exam or 500+ on SAT Evidence Based Reading/Writing section and have overall HS GPA of 80+.
3. You must have passed all other required math, science and history Regents exams to date and not be required to attend summer school.

NOTE: Interested students who are taking the ELA Regents exam in June 2018 are encouraged to apply and can be conditionally accepted pending the regents exam results. Students will bring ELA Regents score to registration on Tuesday, July 3.
