9:30am
Welcome – Victoria Sanford, Center for Human Rights & Peace Studies

9:45am
Panel One: Freedom of Expression After Guantánamo
Mohamedou Slahi (Author) and Larry Siems (Editor) of Guantanamo Diary (Books will be available for purchase and book-signing during lunch)
Moderator: Dr. Asale Angel-Amani, Department of Anthropology, City College of New York

11:00am
Panel Two: Forced Disappearance in Ayotzinapa and Guatemala
Dr. Mariana Mora - Center for Advanced Studies and Research in Social Anthropology, Mexico
Dr. Marvyn Pérez – Child Survivor of Forced Disappearance in Guatemala
Moderator: Dr. Nela Navarro, Center for the Study of Genocide and Human Rights, Rutgers University

12:30-1:00 pm – Lunch is Served

1:00 to 2:00 pm
Film Screening: Hidden Stories – Libera!
(A short film about Guatemalan identity, land and ecology) Discussion with Filmmaker Ben Gersham
Moderator: Dr. Christa Salamandra, Department of Anthropology, Lehman College

2:00 to 3:30 pm
Panel Three: Migration and Citizenship
Natasha Lycia Ora Bannan – Human Rights Lawyer and President of the National Lawyers’ Guild
Rosanna Eugenio—Staff Attorney, Citizenship Now
Moderator: José Higuera López, Jaime Lucero Mexican Studies Institute

Free and Open to the public.

Co-sponsored by the Jaime Lucero Mexican Studies Institute,
the Leonard Lief Library,
the Department of Anthropology, and the Department of Journalism, Communication and Theatre.