

During this weekend, the Information Technology Division will implement recently released critical software updates on the following College systems:

Maintenance Window	System	Business Impact
From Saturday, November 21 st at 7pm, through Sunday, November 22 nd at 7pm	CUNYfirst Monthly Maintenance	The CUNYfirst hosting service provider has scheduled maintenance for the weekend of November 21-22. CUNYfirst will not be available for up to 24 hours
Sunday, November 22 nd from 7am – 10am	Listsers, Snap Survey, Rstudio, Jupyter, NSS file system, Lime Survey, TrackIT	Intermittent service interruptions during reboot. Note: During this period, users are requested to not send emails to the Listsers
Sunday, November 22 nd from 6pm – 10pm	Lehman Mobile App	Login to the app will have intermittent service interruptions during reboots
	Lehman website, including Terminal Four CMS	10 pm -- Downtime for 5 minutes during reboot
	Lehman 360 and all applications accessed through L360, eForms (ePAF, eCSF, eRMR, iDeclare, etc.) Business Intelligence Dashboards, Lehman Connect, Password Manager, Events Calendar, and SETL	Systems will not be available during the first hour of this period. Thereafter, users will experience intermittent service interruptions during reboot
	TutorTrack, Financial Edge/RaiserEdge, Titanium (Student Disability Services and Counseling Center), B&G Work Orders, QuickBooks (Business Office and PAC), Shuster File System, Campus Facility File System, Legal Counsel, Public Safety, and the ID production system	Systems will not be available during the first hour of this period. Thereafter, users will experience intermittent service interruptions during reboot