

Haiti: Commémoration du Bicentenaire de l'Indépendance

Exhibits, Programs and Workshops Commemorating the Bicentennial of Haitian Independence

Art Exhibit: Jacmel by Four Haitian Painters

February 2-28

These paintings capture Haitian landscapes and scenes of the daily life of Jacmel, the noted artists' center in Haiti.

FIAF Library Mon-Thurs 11:30am-8pm / Fri closed / Sat 10am-1:30pm

Rendez-Vous

Wednesday, February 4 • 6-8pm

FIAF's popular French conversation hour Rendez-Vous will feature a special theme of foods and decor of Haiti.

Tinker Auditorium (Enter at 22 East 60th Street) FIAF members $5; Non-members $10

Writing Workshop with Rodney Saint-Eloi

French Writing Workshop for intermediate and advanced students

Thursday, February 5 • 12:30-2pm

Friday, February 6 • 4:30-6pm

To register contact Annie Heminway at hemmah@aol.com or by voicemail at 212-340-9438

FIAF Library FIAF members $10; Non-members $12

Meet the Writer: Dany Laferrière - I Write as I Live

Friday, February 6 • 6:30pm

The author of over ten books comprising what he calls "an American autobiography" discusses how his life influences his writing and his writing his life. In French.

Tinker Auditorium (Enter at 55 East 59th Street) FIAF members Free; Non-members $8

Haiti on Video

Saturday, February 7 • 10am-1:30pm

Large-screen video projection of a selection of documentaries directed by Haitian filmmaker Arnold Antonin. In French without subtitles.

Tinker Auditorium (Enter at 22 East 60th Street) Free.