

Career Workshops With an Eye on Justice and Success

Targeting Your Resume for the Career You Want

Wed., April 21, 2-3 p.m.

Learn how to write a resume and interview effectively and manage special situations such as gaps in your employment history or career changes.

Register: tinyurl.com/TargetedReume

Mastering the Art of Interviewing

Wed., April 28, 2-3 p.m.

Get tips on the interview process, attire and strategies for responding to typical interview questions.

Register: tinyurl.com/MasterArtInterview

The Wednesday workshops will be presented by Bascillia Toussaint, Director of Lehman's Career Exploration & Development Center and are co-sponsored by the Career Exploration & Development Center and Reentry@Lehman

Introduction to the Alternative to Violence Workshops

Thurs., April 22, 4:30-6 p.m.

Learn skills that can transform people's lives. Upon completion of 3 AVP workshops participants can begin as novice facilitators in jails and prisons, schools and community organizations.

Register: tinyurl.com/AVWorkshops

The Thursday workshop will be presented by Lehman Professor David Fletcher, AVP PeaceMakers and are co-sponsored by the Department of Middle & High School Education and Reentry@Lehman

LEHMAN
COLLEGE

CUNY