

walking tour: public art in the bronx

Bedford Park Neighborhood

DeWitt Clinton H.S.:

- Alfred Floegel, The History of the World and Constellations
- Charles Yardley Turner, Opening the Erie Canal

Lehman College:

- Ronald Baron, My Time is Now
- Nancy Drosd, Night Swimmer
- Jackie Ferrara, Covered Walkway
 - Wopo Holup, Intersections
- Christopher Janney, Sonic Pass Blue
- Howardena Pindell, Lehman College Environs

Walton H.S.:

- John Fekner, Melody in 0's and 1's and Traces
- Carrie Mae Weems, Mind, Health, Spirit, Body
 - Janet Zweig, Your Voices

From left to right: Alfred Floegel, DeWitt Clinton H.S.; Christopher Janney, Lehman College, Ronald Baron, Lehman College; Janet Zweig, Walton H.S.; Wopo Holup, Lehman College

Getting there:

By CAR:

Take the Major Deegan Expressway (I-87) to Van Cortlandt Park exit. Take a left up the hill on Van Cortlandt and merge onto Sedgwick Ave. Take a right onto Goulden Avenue—all locations are accessible from Goulden. Or take the Saw Mill/Henry Hudson Parkway to the Moshulu Parkway exit. At the traffic light use the right turn lane and go one block to the Sedgwick/Goulden Avenue intersection. Take a quick left then right onto Goulden.

By TRAIN:

For Lehman College: Take the #4 train or the "D" line subway to the Bedford Park Boulevard station. Walk west to the campus. For DeWitt Clinton High School: Take the #4 train to Moshulu Parkway. Walk west to Moshulu Parkway and Paul Avenue. For Walton High School: Take the #4 or the "D" line to the Kingsbridge Road station. Walk north on Jerome to Walton High School. It is just south of the Lehman College campus.