CAMPUS SPECIFIC INFORMATION
The MPH Program at Lehman College, in collaboration with the CUNY School of Public Health, invites applications for a tenure-track position based at Lehman at the Assistant or Associate Professor rank to begin Fall 2011. In addition to offering the core MPH courses, the Lehman MPH Program specializes in community-based public health and health equity. The Program is committed to increasing the number of under-represented professionals in public health and contributing to the improvement of public health in the Bronx. The successful candidate is expected to teach courses in health equity, policy and management, advise students, engage in scholarly research and publication, seek outside funding, collaborate in promoting a research agenda for the Program and actively participate in Departmental and College activities, committees, and professional organizations.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS
Ph.D. degree in area(s) of expertise, or equivalent as noted below. Also required are the ability to teach successfully, interest in productive scholarship or creative achievement, and ability to cooperate with others for the good of the institution.

OTHER QUALIFICATIONS
Candidates must have a doctoral degree in public health or a related field and evidence of the potential for active research and publication in public health. Preference will be given to applicants who have expertise in health equity policy and management. We are seeking candidates who desire to contribute to a dynamic, growing public health program with a diverse student body and strong commitment to working with communities.

COMPENSATION
Commensurate with education and experience.

BENEFITS
CUNY offers a comprehensive benefits package to employees and eligible dependents based on job title and classification. Employees are also offered pension and Tax-Deferred Savings Plans. Part-time employees must meet a weekly or semester work hour criteria to be eligible for health benefits. Health benefits are also extended to retirees who meet the eligibility criteria.
