Mac: Importing Videos from Sony Handycam Camcorder to iMovie

> Turn camcorder on

> Connect Camcorder to the computer with in the built-in USB cable (Use extension if necessary)

> Touch USB Connect on the LCD screen of the camcorder

> Open iMovie > Click File > Select Import from Camera
Check the box under video for import > Click Import Checked

> Name the Event > Click OK

After video has been imported it will show up in the events section of iMovie.
Editing the video in iMovie

> Open iMovie

> Click File > Select New Project

![iMovie Menu]

> Title Project > Click Create

NS/LL, 2012 School of Education
> Select/Highlight the video from the Events section of iMovie > Drag select to the Project Library section

> Click Clip > Select Trim Clip End

NS/LL, 2012 School of Education
> Drag your cursor to the select the beginning of the video and the end

> Click Clip > Select Trim Selection

> Once the video is trimmed > Click File > Select Finalize Project

NS/LL, 2012 School of Education
This step could take some time depending on the size of the video

> Click Share > Select Export Movie Using Quicktime

> Click Save
Save exported file as...

Save As: Practice.mp4

Where: Desktop

Export: Movie to MPEG-4

Use: Default Settings

Options...

Cancel Save

iMovie

Exporting project...

Time remaining: about 3 minutes

Cancel

NS/LL, 2012 School of Education