Students who have not participated in the Lehman College Now program should use the link above to apply for fall 2022 courses. Students should complete application and include a copy of their HS transcript (permanent record).

The Lehman College Now program will be offering both in-person and hybrid courses on the Lehman College campus and online synchronous courses for the fall 2022 semester. We are encouraging students take in-person or hybrid classes, since we believe the campus experience is invaluable for the students' educational development. All students must be fully vaccinated to attend courses on the campus, and the Lehman College Now staff will assist students on how to upload their vaccination documents to the CUNYfirst site. Saturday courses will begin on Saturday August 27. T/Th courses will begin on Thursday September 8 and M/W courses will begin on Monday September 12.
