Dr. Bergmann and our guests from Admissions, Institutional Research and IT prepared an extremely informative launch of the new Admissions Dashboard to help us in our quest for data related to Freshmen applying to and enrolled at Lehman. They walked us through the data which will be available to our committee and sub-committee.

Drs. Campeanu and Scheetz gave a summary of their sub-committee's preliminary analysis of freshman data. A full report will be presented to the Senate for the November meeting. Some main points about the 2013-2016 student cohorts include: data from one term demonstrated that OSS students were comparable in terms of GPA to SEEK students, but OSS students earned fewer credits. However, after the one, their first semester, the differences were no longer apparent. We only have data so far from one semester of the 2017 enrollees, so we are continuing to analyze data about the second semester as it becomes available. Another fact is that this year's enrollment of OSS students has gone down to 11.4% compared to last year's 25%.

The sub-committee is continuing to collect information, including a cost analysis study to see how many students Lehman can effectively serve in each group in terms of support services.

Also discussed was a proposal by the Nursing Department to the senate but no vote was necessary.

We plan to schedule the next meeting in early November to prepare for report to the Senate.
