*José Valdés Cadilla:
Estampas de Harlem
Harlem Sketches*

AN EXHIBITION IN CARMAN HALL, SECOND FLOOR

NOVEMBER 1st - DECEMBER 15th

José Valdés Cadilla and the "Sketches of Harlem"

This collection of thirteen sketches by José Valdés Cadilla was published in the newspaper La voz (New York) from March to July of 1938. Every image is accompanied by a written description that helps to explain the nuances of each sketch. These "Sketches of Harlem" capture the neighborhood residents and their local customs, illustrating the daily life, achievements, and challenges of this primarily Hispanic and Latino community.
