

French Placement Exams Registration

Department of Languages and Literatures

Parlez-vous français, ou avez-vous déjà étudié le français ?

Nous vous invitons à passer notre examen de niveau.

French placement exams are given at specific times online through Zoom and in person (with prior notification) during faculty members' regular office hours. You have up to one hour for the written exam.

Registration instructions: Email the faculty proctor at least 24 hours before the exam date/time that meets your schedule. Include your full name, EMPLID, and preferred exam date/time. The faculty proctor will send you further instructions.

The placement exam schedule (at the starting time given):

Wednesdays, 12:30-1:45 PM
April 9, 23, 30
May 7, 14

Prof. Montaña

francisco.montano@lehman.cuny.edu

Fridays, 1:00-2:00 PM
April 11, 25
May 2, 9, 16

Prof. Erfani

amin.erfani@lehman.cuny.edu

You are encouraged to take the exam in advance of registration to receive permission to enroll and for the best chance of available seats in your preferred class section. Fall 2025 classes begin on August 26, 2025; late registration ends on September 1, 2025. See the advisement schedule (below) to speak with a faculty advisor from the Department of Languages and Literatures.

The final date to add new courses for summer session A (June 2025) is June 2, 2025; the final date for summer session C (July-August) is July 14, 2025; and for the Fall 2025 semester September 1st, 2025.

You do not need to study for the exam.

The exam will be used to place students in FRE (French) courses only.

Generally, you will receive an email from the professor who proctored your exam within 24 hours with your result and to confirm that your CUNYFirst course registration permission has been issued. If you have not received a result after two business days, or if you need to access your result at a later time, please email the Department of Languages & Literatures (languages.literatures@lehman.cuny.edu) with your name and EMPL ID.
