

Milman Scholarship Awards and Recipient Requirements

Amount and Length of Scholarships Vary By Department

CLLSE

- Eight $2000 grants each year (graduate program only)
- Scholarship awards will be granted for one year, with the opportunity to reapply for one additional year. The maximum number of years for any individual will be two years.

ECCE

- Six $4000 grants each year (graduate program only)
- Scholarship awards will be granted for one year, with the opportunity to reapply for one additional year. The maximum number of years for any individual will be two years.

MHSE

- Amount of awards will be determined each semester, between $2000 and $5000.
- Scholarship awards will be granted for one year, with the opportunity to reapply for one additional year. The maximum number of years for any individual will be two years.

Requirements for the Recipient of the Scholarship

CLLSE:

- Each award recipient will be expected to create a project that represents the integration of the arts into a particular area of study. The project may be an assignment from a specific course. It should be focused on supporting K-12 students or future leaders in developing knowledge and skills through the use of music, dance, drama, visual art, or another art medium. By the end of the award year, the recipient will present the artifact in a relevant course and also share it with a professional organization as a resource to be disseminated to other educational professionals.
- The Milman Scholar will make the presentation available as a resource for other candidates and teachers in different settings (e.g., a poster presented at the SOE LUTE Reception, in the poster frame on the wall, or on a teacher resource website).

ECCE:

- By the end of their award year, the Milman Scholar would, in consultation with faculty mentors, identify a unit of study in a content area and develop learning experiences that integrate the arts (visual and/or performing) with the study of content, and implement them with children, documenting their experience. The Milman Scholar will share his/her project in a relevant course.

- The Milman Scholar will make the presentation available as a resource for other candidates and teachers in different settings (e.g., a poster presented at the SOE LUTE Reception, in the poster frame on the wall; website for teachers and teacher candidates).

MHSE:

Each award recipient will be expected to:

- create a project that represents the integration of the arts into a particular area of study. The project may be an assignment from a specific course. It should be focused on supporting K-12 students or future leaders in developing knowledge and skills through the use of music, dance, drama, visual arts, or another art medium.
- By the end of the award year, the recipient will present the artifact in a relevant course and also share it with a professional organization as a resource to be disseminated to other educational professionals.
- The Milman Scholar will make the presentation available as a resource for other candidates and teachers in different settings (e.g., a poster presented at the SOE LUTE Reception, a framed display of the artifact in the SOE; or as a teacher resource on the MHSE website).