

Three Minor Programs in the Department of Political Science

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE 15-CREDIT MINOR in POLITICAL SCIENCE

- 3 One required course for all minors: POL 166: American Political System
- 6 Two elective courses at 200-, 300-, or 400-level.
- 6 Two elective courses a 300- or 400 level.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE 18-CREDIT MINOR IN LAW & GOVERNMENT

- 9 Three required course for all minors:
POL 166: The American Political System
POL 227: Modern Political Philosophy
POL 302: The Judiciary
- 3 One of the following courses (if both are taken, the second course will be counted as an elective course):
POL 303: Constitutional Law: Government Structures and Powers
POL 304: Constitutional Law: Personal Rights and Liberties
- 6 Two elective courses selected from the following:
POL 301: Legislative Politics
POL 303: Constitutional Law: Government Structures and Powers
POL 304: Constitutional Law: Personal Rights and Liberties
POL 340: Law in Action
POL 312: Jurisprudence
POL 344: International Law

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE 15-CREDIT MINOR IN GLOBAL STUDIES

- 6 Two required courses for all minors:
POL 240: International Politics
POL 241: Globalization
- 9 Three elective POL courses selected from the following:
POL 328: Politics, Gender and Society in the Middle East and North Africa
POL 339: Human Rights
POL 343: International and Regional Organization
POL 344: International Law
POL 345: Integration of the Americas
POL 347: The Law of Diplomacy, Treaties, and War
POL 348: International Conflict and Conflict Resolution
POL 3520: Special Topics in Human Rights and Peace Studies
POL 3600: Political Demography
POL 364: Capitalism and Its Critics
POL 366: Global Political Economy
POL 367: Political Economy of Development
POL 368: Global Environmental Politics
POL 369: Global Justice
POL 4720: Model United Nations
POL 4730: Internship in Human Rights and Peace Studies