

walking tour: public art in the bronx

Bronx Park Neighborhood

Wildlife Conservation Society / Bronx Zoo:

- Biagio Catella, Rockefeller Fountain
- Eli Harvey, Lion House
- Anna Vaughn Hyatt Huntington, Jaguars
- Charles Robert Knight, Elephant House and Zebra House
- Paul Manship, Rainey Memorial Gates
- Alexander Phimister Proctor, Elephant House, south side, (now known as Zoo Center)
- Monkey House, Main Bird House, 1901 (now the Administration Building), and Reptile House

Botanical Gardens:

- Carl Eugene Tefft, Fountain of Life
- Lenape (Delaware) Indian, Turtle petroglyph

P.S. 20:

- Anton Van Dalen, Bronx Botanical Garden Friezes: Garden Path and Garden Wall

From left to right: Paul Manship, Bronx Zoo; Anna Vaughn Hyatt Huntington, Bronx Zoo; Carl Eugene Tefft, Botanical Gardens; Anton Van Dalen, P.S.20

Getting there:

By CAR:

The Bronx Zoo is located at Fordham Road and the Bronx River Parkway and easily accessible from Exit 6 on the Bronx River Parkway. The New York Botanical Garden is easily accessible from Exit 7W on the Bronx River Parkway.

By TRAIN:

For NYZS, The Wildlife Conservation Society or Bronx Zoo: Take the #2 or #5 train to Pelham Parkway station or the Bronx Park East station or take Metro North (from Grand Central Station) to the Fordham stop.

For New York Botanical Gardens: Take the "D" or "4" subway lines to Bedford Park Boulevard station in the Bronx. Take the "BX-26" bus from the corner of Jerome Avenue and Bedford Park Boulevard, which stops at the Garden or take Metro North (from Grand Central Station) to the Botanical Gardens stop.